Description
I am trying to use svn connector to Rally provided from Rally.
I have installed the version 1.9.2p0
bash-3.00# ruby -v
ruby 1.9.2p0 (2010-08-18 revision 29036) [sparc-solaris2.8]
When I try to run the test script I get the following error bash-3.00# ruby config_test.rb
1.Log file write Passed.
2.Rally Url Passed
/usr/local/lib/ruby/1.9.1/rexml/document.rb:117: [BUG] Segmentation fault

Hi Team,

I am not able to proceed further, Can anyone please help on this

#3 - 05/20/2011 03:10 PM - naruse (Yui NARUSE)

What is config_test.rb.

Is this reproduced with 1.9.2-p180?

Hello,

I'm closing this ticket as "worksforme".

I don't know what rally is, but I guess OP followed the process explained in the URL:

<http://www.rallydev.com/help/subversion-installation-user-guide>

I tried it, but I cannot repro:

$ ruby config_test.rb
ruby 1.9.3p286 (2012-10-12 revision 37165) [x86_64-linux]
```

$ ruby config_test.rb

```
1. Ruby version check          PASSED
2. Ruby rally_api gem check    PASSED
3. Current directory world searchability check  PASSED
4. Wrapper script world executability check    WARNING -- wrapper script RallyWrapper.sh not world executable
5. 2rally.rb driver world readability check    PASSED
6. Log file write check        PASSED
7. Rally Url check             PASSED
8. Rally Connection check      FAILED -- 743: unexpected token at

We cannot investigate this issue any more, and I believe that this ticket can make no progress.
